

3. The Resurrection Body Insights into Eternity

Going Home

There is something special about coming home. All of us have experienced what it is like after being away, whether for vacation, work, or some other reason, to come home to what is familiar. There are sounds, smells, and visual reminders when we walk back into our familiar surroundings. It is a very comforting feeling, the feeling of being at home. We even say, about some relationships, that we feel “at home” with a person. What we really mean is, that person makes us feel like we can kick back and be ourselves, like we are when we are at home. I am reminded as I write this, that today, there are many people all over the world who have been forced to leave their homes, forced to leave family in some cases, and all that they hold dear. Everyone should have a place of rest, a place to call their home. Jesus promised us, before He left this earth, that He went to prepare such a place for us. A place where we will dwell with Him, a home like no other. The home we have known in this life, no matter how humble, or how grand, will pale in comparison to what He has prepared for those who are His.

When I was just a teenager, I worked as a dish washer on a cruise liner called the Avalon. The ship traveled from England to North Africa, visiting Tangiers and Casablanca in Morocco, as well as Gibraltar and Spain. The temperature was in the upper 90’s and there was no air conditioning on the vessel and we worked very long hours. The worst part was that I was working in the kitchen/galley where it was much hotter than it was on deck. We had to take salt tablets every day because of excessive sweating. I worked long hard hours followed by times of long diligent partying (I was not a believer in Christ until several years later). The voyage lasted only two weeks but it felt like much longer due to the hard work. I remember weeping when the ship finally passed the White Cliffs of Dover, England; home was just an hour away! It was a special moment. My time away from home on that voyage was so hard that I resolved that I would not travel again! (Of course, I did not keep that personal vow).

1) What is your favorite story of returning home? Share a time that sticks in your mind, what was it that made returning home feel so good?

There is the story of an old missionary couple, the Morrison’s, who were finally returning to America after serving Christ as missionaries in Africa. On the same ship was Teddy Roosevelt, the American president at the time, who was returning from an African Safari. Bands and parades were going on in New York as everybody turned up at the dock to welcome Teddy as his transatlantic liner came alongside the quay. The crowds and press were waiting just to catch a glimpse of Teddy finally returning home. The Morrison’s were despondent as they left the port that day as they had little money, only enough for a very simple apartment. Henry was quite sad as he saw the welcome that Teddy Roosevelt received. He told his wife that something had to be wrong, as they had given 40 years of their lives for Christian missionary work, and no one cared enough even to come to the dock to welcome them home. His wise wife told him to go to the Lord in prayer about it. A little while later he returned, with a beaming smile on his face, having been reminded by the Lord, “You are not home yet, Henry.”

If you ever grow weary of this life, remind yourself, “You’re not home yet.” Likewise, if you grow complacent because of an easy lifestyle and put all of your resources and effort into enjoying the comforts of this life, think about this: This is not all there is. This is not your eternal home. This life is just for a short while. If you have placed your trust in Christ, the time will come when the Lord will come for us, and we will pull out our tent pegs and collapse the tent (2 Corinthians 5:1-4), either at departure from the body (death) or when our Master and Lord will return for us according to His promise.

<sup>1</sup>“Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me. <sup>2</sup>“In My Father’s house are many dwelling places; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup>“If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also (John 14:1-3).

In our last study we talked about the coming of the Lord for His church, those who are born-again of the Spirit. We talked about the rewards that He will give for character, faithfulness and service. In this study we will look at the resurrection body that believers will be given at the coming of Christ. The Lord knows those who are His (2 Timothy 2:19), and at the coming of Christ, He will send forth His angels and gather those who have received His free gift of salvation:

And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other (Matthew 24:31).

This is where I differ from some Bible teachers who teach that there are two second comings of Christ, one before the time of tribulation or persecution and one after. It is my belief that there is one second coming of Christ. Nowhere in scripture are we told of two second comings of Christ. At the coming of Christ, the church is raptured or caught up together with Him in the clouds:

<sup>13</sup>Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. <sup>15</sup>According to the Lord’s word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. <sup>16</sup>For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. <sup>17</sup>After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever (1 Thessalonians 4:13-17).

This passage above is the classic passage about the rapture of the church. As we have said elsewhere in these studies, the word Rapture is not found in the Bible. We get the English word “rapture” from the Latin word rapere which is the translation of the Greek word Harpazo. This word literally means to be snatched up. It is translated into the English in the passage above with the words “caught up” (v.17). This event will be preceded by a loud shout from the Lord Jesus Himself. I wonder what words will issue from His lips in a loud command. Notice that a loud trumpet call will be heard also. Those who have died/slept in Christ, are brought with Christ at that coming (v.14), and are instantly changed, reunited with their body. Those who are still alive at that time will see this happening before they themselves are caught up together with all believers all over the world.

2) What's the significance or purpose of receiving a new body after our spirit has gone to heaven?

The Resurrection of the Body

I put it to you that this same event that we call the rapture of the Church is the same event in a different passage of scripture that we call the resurrection. At the rapture of the church our bodies will be instantly changed just as Jesus' body was when He was raised from the dead. Paul writes to the church at Corinth about the same event of the dead being raised:

<sup>50</sup>Now I say this, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. <sup>51</sup>Behold, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, <sup>52</sup>in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed (1 Corinthians 15:50-52).

Notice this same event is preceded by the blast of a trumpet and the dead are raised. There are not two raising of the dead, the rapture and the resurrection are one and the same. Our earthly tent, this sinful body we all have in this world, will be changed instantaneously. We are told that this change occurs in "a moment" (v.52). The Greek word used is atomō, we get the English word "atom" from this word. It describes an atomic particle of a second—instantaneously we will be changed. Twice the word "changed" is used and only in this passage of scripture. The Greek word is allagēsometha. It means to change, alter, transform. Paul the apostle introduces this event by writing about what happens to seeds. Let's go back a bit in the passage and try to explain the process of how we as Christians come to receive a glorified body:

<sup>35</sup>But someone may ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?" <sup>36</sup>How foolish! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. <sup>37</sup>When you sow, you do not plant the body that will be, but just a seed, perhaps of wheat or of something else. <sup>38</sup>But God gives it a body as he has determined, and to each kind of seed he gives its own body. <sup>39</sup>All flesh is not the same: Men have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another and fish another. <sup>40</sup>There are also heavenly bodies and there are earthly bodies; but the splendor of the heavenly bodies is one kind, and the splendor of the earthly bodies is another. <sup>41</sup>The sun has one kind of splendor, the moon another and the stars another; and star differs from star in splendor. <sup>42</sup>So will it be with the resurrection of the dead (1 Corinthians 15:35-42).

Paul uses the analogy of a seed. He says that a seed differs greatly from the plant that comes from it. He is saying that our physical body is but a seed that when sown at the death of the body, will be greatly changed when this sinful age is over and the resurrection of the body occurs. Before we move on to talk more about the resurrection body, we have to talk about how this transformation comes about.

The Life of God Sown in Our Hearts

When a person gives their life to Christ, something happens within. They are regenerated or born-again by the Spirit. Jesus said that without this experience of being born again or born from above, no one can see the kingdom of God:

Jesus replied, "Very truly I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again" (John 3:3).

The apostle Peter writes, "In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead" (1 Peter 1:3). A spiritual seed begins to grow in us from that point, slowly transforming us through the word of God, and our trials and life experiences, into the image of Christ:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God (1 Peter 1:23).

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full (John 10:10).

The characteristic of this living seed is spiritual life but more full, abundant, eternal and imperishable. The Greek word that is translated "life" in the above passage of scripture is the word zōē. It means: "to live." My Key Word Study Bible says of this word:

"It is a somewhat metaphysical term which denotes the very life force itself, the vital principle which animates living beings. Zōē is used most in connection with eternal life. This life is the very life of God of which believers are made partakers."<sup>1</sup>

I don't understand how words can be seeds but I do not doubt the power of words. God spoke His Word and the World was created. Throughout Genesis chapter one, the creation was brought about by God speaking His Word. For instance, God said, "Let there be light," and there was light (Genesis 1:3). Take a look at how many times the words "And God said" are written. There is great power in the spoken word of God.

In our passage in 1 Corinthians 15, Paul says that God is the One who determines what the seed will become when it grows up (Verse 38). He says that there are different kinds of physical bodies on planet earth, men, animals, birds and fish. All physical creatures that are born on earth come from seeds. I see Paul making two different analogies when he talks about a seed:

Our resurrection body will be able to be recognized in some way as us. He says, <sup>37</sup>"When you sow, you do not plant the body that will be, but just a seed, perhaps of wheat or of something else (v.37). Within the seed is the DNA of the physical body. Oranges do not grow from apple seeds. There is a continuity of life shared between the seed and the body it will become. Our heavenly resurrected bodies will be somewhat like the seed of our earthly fleshly body. We will recognize one another in our resurrection bodies.

“Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when he appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is” (1 John 3:2).

Just as our physical life was inherited from Adam in that we became like him, in the same way we will also be like the last Adam, the Lord Jesus Christ, at the Resurrection. <sup>49</sup>And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven (1 Corinthians 15:49).

But we all with unveiled face, beholding and reflecting like a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord Spirit (2 Corinthians 3:18).

There will be varying degrees of glory between believers that occurs at this change, Paul says. This is what Jesus talked about when He said, “Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father” (Matthew 13:43). Our physical bodies have been created by God to live in the physical realm, however, this body is to be redeemed and changed into the spiritual and physical body that God has planned for us to put on. Paul the apostle also told us that:

I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable (1 Corinthians 15:50)

The life that we received from Adam, is not enough for us to enter this heavenly kingdom without this addition of the life we receive from Christ—the gift of God. I believe that God’s plan for redeemed humanity, the Church of the Living God, is for the saints to be able to live in the spiritual realm as well as the physical realm, just as Christ did in the 40 days after His resurrection. Christ Jesus has not left His body on Earth somewhere; He abides in heaven with a physical yet spiritual resurrected body. Isn’t that true of Enoch, the man of God? God enjoyed his company so much that he took him up to heaven in his physical being:

Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him away (Genesis 5:24).

We are told the same thing of Elijah. He too was taken up to heaven still clothed with his physical body (2 Kings 2:11). Some say that Enoch and Elijah are the two witnesses that are mentioned as testifying to the world’s sin as mentioned in the Book of Revelation (Revelation 11:3). These two individuals have yet to die once (Hebrews 9:27), so it is possible that they come from heaven to testify of God’s grace and then they are killed. Of course, three and a half days later God raises them from the dead much to the anger of Antichrist’s followers (Revelation 11:11).

Spiritual life only comes at the death of the physical seed planted; the Lord Jesus Christ was that heavenly spiritual seed that gave His life for us as a seed:

<sup>23</sup>Jesus replied, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. <sup>24</sup>Very truly I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. <sup>25</sup>Anyone who loves their life will lose it, while anyone who hates their life in this world will keep it for eternal life (John 12:23-25).

Let’s continue in what Paul the apostle taught concerning this in his first Corinthian letter:

In our main passage about the resurrection body (1 Corinthians 15:35-57), Paul talks about Adam, the first man, being a living seed to bear all of us in his image. He then says that the Last Adam (Christ) became a life giving spirit (Verse 45). Paul has already said earlier that what happened to Adam happened to us all. Adam was representative of all of us because he was the federal head of the human race. It may not seem fair to you for all of his progeny to inherit his sin nature. The life of that seed, Adam’s sin nature, was passed to all of us. But Christ has come Himself to be the federal head for all who receive His full pardon. In this way, God brings His divine life through another seed, one that is perfect and free from sin. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive (1 Corinthians 15:22). Just as Adam gave us our physical, and with it, our sin nature, Christ also gives us this seed of new life planted in our hearts. He came to give us life!

The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable; <sup>43</sup>it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; <sup>44</sup>it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup>So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam, a life-giving spirit. <sup>46</sup>The spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual. <sup>47</sup>The first man was of the dust of the earth, the second man from heaven. <sup>48</sup>As was the earthly man, so are those who are of the earth; and as is the man from heaven, so also are those who are of heaven. <sup>49</sup>And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven (1 Corinthians 15:42-49).

3) What words or sentences stand out to you from this passage? Share your thoughts with one another about what this new body will be like.

The body that is sown in the ground is completely different from the one raised. Our resurrection body will be raised imperishable, which means that it cannot perish. It will not wear out, grow old or ever get sick or diseased. Just as we received from Adam, our forefather, life in the physical realm, so Christians receive spiritual life from the last Adam. Christ is called the Last Adam, to say that we should not expect another. As we have put on Adam’s likeness, thanks be to God, we will also put on the likeness of the glory of Christ.

<sup>50</sup>I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. <sup>51</sup>Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed— <sup>52</sup>in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. <sup>53</sup>For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. <sup>54</sup>When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory." <sup>55</sup>"Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" <sup>56</sup>The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup>But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians (15:35-57)).

We Shall be Changed.

That which is on the inside will someday be revealed. It won't be the same as our old nature; Paul says that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God (Verse 50). It will no longer be perishable but imperishable (Verse 53). We won't all sleep; (not all Christians will be separated from their bodies), there will be some that are transformed instantly without going through the death process. When Christ comes, in a flash, in the batting of an eye's time, we will be changed from having a perishable body to being clothed with an imperishable body (Verses 51-52).

the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup>who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body (Philippians 3:20-21).

This word that is translated transform is the Greek word Metaschēmatizō. It is a construction of two Greek words. Meta means a change of place or condition, and schēma means shape, or outward form. To transform, change the outward form or appearance of something, refashion, reshape.<sup>2</sup>

4) What do you think it means to have an imperishable and immortal body? (1 Corinthians 15:42). What do you think we will be able to do that we haven't been able to do until that point?

An imperishable body means that it won't age or get sick. Our new bodies will be glorious all of the time. You will always have youthful strength and be radiantly beautiful with God's glory radiating from you. I believe that just as Jesus walked through walls into the upper room where the door was locked for fear of the Jews (John 20:19), we will also be able to pass through walls and travel instantaneously, not bound by the physical realm. Our new bodies will not be limited to only one sphere of existence. We cannot comprehend this now, as we are limited in this life, to this dimension on earth. Just as a huge, sprawling oak tree could not be compared to the seed from which it grows, our spiritual bodies will transcend what we can imagine. We do not have anything to compare it to.

Paul says that our new body will be like Christ's glorious body (Philippians 3:20). This radiance that accompanies us will be both authoritative and beautiful. Jesus said that, "the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their father (Matthew 13:43. Emphasis mine). Those that are Christ's will command respect but it will be a respect that is born of wisdom that is from above. There will be a kindness and joy that will be ours. It will also be a powerful body (1 Corinthians 15:43). I don't think that this speaks only of strength, although that certainly will be part of it. I think that there will be a power and authority to work the miraculous just as Jesus did and still does. We will participate with Him to not only worship Him, but to do His will. Our bodies will be raised and we will see His face and be transformed into His image. Daniel the prophet also speaks of that time in this way:

<sup>1</sup>"At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered. <sup>2</sup>Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt. <sup>3</sup>Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever (Daniel 12:1-3).

Daniel says that this will happen at a time when there will be a time of distress such as never before. But at that time everyone whose name is written in God's book—will be delivered. I believe that what Daniel is talking about is the rapture of the saints at some time during the tribulation or time of distress. In the second session, Preparing for Eternity, we said that one of the things that you can take with you to heaven was other people, here in this passage we are told that those who invest their lives to touch other lives for Christ, will be like the stars for ever and ever. I cannot comprehend what it would mean to shine like a star, but it sure sounds like a reward that would be wonderful, worth my effort and devotion to Christ in this life! That which God has been doing on the inside of you and through you will be made known and it will be glorious, the chrysalis of this old decaying body will put on an immortal body, just like our Lord's. It will be time to go home! Graduation day at last! Nothing in this life will hold us back any longer. Far from being the end that we see when we look at the death of an earthly body, there will be a glorious new beginning which one day will manifest physically in a body like His own glorious resurrection body, for He is the first fruit, and we shall be like Him.

Prayer: Lord, thank you for preparing a place for us. Thank you for the message of the free ticket for a passage to heaven to be with You. May all that hear and read these words, not put off for a later date, but respond to your offer of full forgiveness of sin. May your light shine in us ever brighter. Amen.
